The Gwinnett Center, a cooperative effort between Georgia State University, the University of Georgia, and DeKalb College, established a classroom facility in the fall of 1989. The center is located at 5155 Sugarloaf Parkway (formerly Atkinson Road) in Lawrenceville, Georgia. Classroom assignments will be posted in the lobby. The Gwinnett Center is easily accessible from Interstate 85.

If heading north on I-85: take exit #41 (Georgia 316). Take the first exit (Sugarloaf Parkway). Turn left onto Sugarloaf Parkway. Go straight through the next two traffic lights. The Gwinnett Center is the first building on the right, across Sugarloaf Parkway from Gwinnett Tech.
